

Alabama Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame

SAMMY DUNN Class of 2000

*“In Recognition of a Lifetime of Outstanding Achievement in the game of Baseball.
The State of Alabama will forever be in your debt.”*

Sammy Dunn grew up in Fairfield, Alabama. He graduated from Fairfield High School. He went on to play at Jefferson State from 1970 until 1972. He then played at the University of Montevallo from 1972 until 1974. He became the head baseball coach at Vestavia Hills High School in 1977 and was there until 2004. He accumulated 9 state championships between 1991 and 2000. He won one national championship in 1998. He is referred to as the winningest high school coach in Alabama.

During his career, Coach Dunn was awarded many awards. He won numerous 6A High School Coach of the Year awards. He was inducted into the Vestavia Hills Sports Hall of Fame and the University of Montevallo Sports Hall of Fame. He was awarded the Leon G. Davis Award from the University of Montevallo. He is a member of the Alabama High School Athletic Associations Hall of Fame. He was the National Coach of the Year for 1998 and 2004. He won the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Frank “Pig” House Special Recognition Award for 2004.

Inducted January 14, 2000