

Alabama Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame

BUTCH WEAVER Class of 2018

*"In Recognition of a Lifetime of Outstanding Achievement in the game of Baseball.
The State of Alabama will forever be in your debt."*

Butch Weaver graduated from the University of Alabama in 1979 and embarked on an impressive high school coaching career. He coached football and baseball at three different high schools before coming to Lee High School in Huntsville in 1986.

Since coming to Lee, he has served as assistant and head Football Coach, head Baseball Coach, and for the last 15 years, Athletic Director. While head Football Coach, he had 24 athletes play at the college level and one at the professional level. As Head Baseball Coach, he has had 71 players go on to compete at the college level, seven to be signed and play in the minor leagues, and two to play in Major League Baseball.

He has served as Head Baseball Coach at Lee for 31 years, where his teams have won four city championships and eight area championships. His teams have made it to the state playoffs for 20 seasons. During the 2017 season, Weaver won his 500th baseball game. He was selected Huntsville City Coach of the Year six times and was inducted into the Huntsville-Madison Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

Inducted January 19, 2018