

Alabama Baseball Coaches Association Distinguished Service Award

PERRY BUTLER 2002 Recipient

*“In Recognition of a Lifetime of Outstanding Achievement in the game of Baseball.
The State of Alabama will forever be in your debt.”*

Perry Butler has influenced the game of baseball through his service on and off the field. From 1980 to the present he has umpired recreation baseball ranging from 10-year-old to 18-year-old play. Along with recreation baseball, he has umpired high school baseball from 1981 to 1999. As an umpire, Butler has worked 12 State Finals, 15 State Semi Finals, and multiple other post season assignments.

Butler has served off the field from 1999 to the present as the AHSAA Director of Baseball. He is currently the AHSAA Baseball Rules Interpreter, where he started this role in 2000. His volunteer experience with Dixie Boys Baseball from 1995 until now includes being the Assistant District Director, District Director, Assistant State Director, State Director, and Member of the National Board.
