Why attend the Alabama Baseball Coaches Association's 2022 State Baseball Coaches Convention?

"By far one of the best high school clinics I've ever spoken at, and I've spoken at a bunch all around the country."

Skip Bertman, 5-Time Nat'l Champion LSU Head Baseball Coach
2015 ALABCA Convention Speaker

The ALABCA Convention has grown into one of the finest in the country. I look forward to attending each year to learn from some of the great coaches in our state and across the U.S. It's also an opportunity to share ideas with other coaches, see old friends and create new friendships. I also love attending the Hall of Fame banquet to see some of our best being celebrated for their successful careers, but more importantly, to hear their stories of the people that helped them along their way.

Lee Hall, Homewood High School – Head Baseball Coach

I always look forward to the convention to learn new and different ideas that can help our program. I really enjoy listening to the high level coaches each year to help our program grow.

Jeff Mauldin, Hewitt-Trussville High School – Head Baseball Coach
2-Time (6A and 7A) State Champion Head Baseball Coach

Myself and my coaching staff look forward to The ALABCA convention every year as an opportunity to grow our knowledge of the game, network with coaches from around the state, and help grow the game of baseball in the state of Alabama.

Adam Moseley, Hoover High School – Head Baseball Coach
2017 7A AHSAA State Champions

The ALABCA Convention is as much a part of our schedule as any game we play. The clinic is a great way to kick start the baseball season. The information that we bring back is instrumental in the development of our players. Each and every year the ALABCA does a great job at bringing in an unbelievable lineup of speakers.

Drew Miller, G.W. Long High School – Head Baseball Coach
2013, 2017, 2018 & 2019 2A State Champions

"To be a great teacher of baseball, you must first be a great student of baseball. Great coaches should always be looking for ways to improve their programs and their knowledge of the game. Therefore I go to 3-4 clinics each year. The ALABCA Coaches Convention gives coaches an opportunity to hear from coaches with new ideas or coaches who have taken their programs to great heights. It's truly a great opportunity to better yourself and your program."

Chris Heaps, Russellville High School – Head Baseball Coach
2015, 2016 & 2017 5A AHSAA State Champions

The ALABCA Convention provides great learning opportunities to baseball coaches at every level in our state. There are noteworthy speakers that cover a wide range of important topics I have found useful and productive as I continue to learn as a coach. A special highlight is the annual Hall of Fame Banquet that honors that years inductees along with the recognizing the coaches and players of note around the state. I have attended several other state's conventions but the ALABCA Convention has exceeded the others with its growth and presentation.

Mark Smartt, Troy University – Head Baseball Coach

Attending the ALABCA Coaches Convention assists every member in several ways. Connection - coaches are strengthened and find common ground when we gather. Supporting the coaches association is one of the best ways to leave a legacy of improvement for our sport statewide. Learn - with great and passionate speakers coaches always leave equipped with new techniques. The best coaches are life long learners. Energized - I find myself leaving the ALABCA excited to attack the upcoming season.

Butch Thompson, Auburn University – Head Baseball Coach
